Mr. George Beck,

Elfred,

New York.

My dear Mr. Beck:

I have just received your letter of March 17th, enclosing check for $3.00. I will, accordingly, order a silver medal for you instead of a bronze one.

Did you leave of pair of glasses here the other day? I found a pair on my desk sometime after you had left and concluded that they belonged to you. If they are yours will you kindly let me know and I will mail them to you at once.

Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you here again in the near future, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Director.

Mr. George Beck,
Flared,
Sullivan Co., N.Y.

My dear Mr. Beck:-

With reference to our talk some time ago, we find it impossible to admit you to Associate life membership, except by the payment of fifty dollars, which must be invested in the Permanent Fund.

You told me you had a receipt from me for your dues for 1916. I regret to say I can find no record of receiving that, and our Auditor also fails to discover it. Will you therefore kindly tell me exactly how your receipt reads as to dates, etc., or loan it to this office for comparison with our record?

We do not wish to lose any of our artist members. We are attracting more every day. Mr. Spicer-Simson's talk last Thursday was of great value, and we hope to print it.

Our second notices for this year's dues are just going out. Are you not going to remain with us?

Yours very truly,

Treasurer.

Dear John (yours)
I received your letter of the 8th inst. and was glad to hear from you. I am sorry you are not well. I hope you will soon be better. I am very much interested in you. I hope you will soon be better.
I am very much interested in you.

The time has passed and I am now in the same place as before. I am very much interested in you.
I am very much interested in you.

The non arrival of the Societys organ for 1916 shows where you place the writer in spite of my explanation why I did not return the postal.

I very much regret to discontinue my membership

Yours truly

George Beck

Eldred, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Beck:-

I have your letter of March 7th. First of all, please blame me, and not the Society for anything that has caused you displeasure. I am simply a volunteer trying to fill a gap and do a thousand things that I am not fitted for. Next week we expect to have an acting secretary who will handle this office satisfactorily.

When I wrote you on March 6th, it was with the kindest intentions, not "classing you as delinquent", nor "doubting your veracity" as you state, but asking for your co-operation to help me find our error. Your payment of January 18th, 1916, was not entered in our ledger, and I quickly located the omission when you gave the exact date. I am sorry for the trouble I have given you and trust you can accept my apology.

I can not understand why you have not received your Journal. I am mailing another one to you today, and trust it reaches you in good order. We have had several go astray lately, and would ask that you do us the favor of notifying us if you do not receive the book in a week.

I will present your resignation to the Council on the twenty-fourth.

Please remember you are always welcome here, whether you remain a member or not. Also, that we will always be glad to give you any information or service within our scope, and we trust you will give us the opportunity to show our usefulness. Up to the present you have not availed yourself of our service.

Trusting your friendship will not be withdrawn on account of a stupid omission, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

Treasurer.

Dear Mr. Beck:

Thank you for your letter of September 7th and for the photograph which you have sent us.
Unfortunately, our Society has not this sum available for a medal of this kind, and I am therefore obliged to return your photograph to you.

Appreciating your thought in sending it to us

Very truly yours,

Secretary
